Monday, July 12- Friday July 16

Join this art intensive, fun-filled week for a week of creativity AND discipline. We will explore the different techniques of drawing, then move into color in pastels of both kinds, then into watercolor, then into acrylics, with all materials in generous abundance, taught by Joanna McKethan who studied art at Queens University, UNC-Chapel Hill, Methodist and the University of Munich Extension and has taught after-school art in Harnett County for 29 years and Wake for 18 years—and whose students have graduated from top schools in art. The last day will be for working further on any one of the other day's projects or on a new one. Plenty of books available for ideas. Different projects outlined.
